

PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT MANUAL

A copy of the manual will be available for inspection at Concargo (Pty) Ltd Head Office and all branches and is also available on the company website at www.concargo.com

INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000. The purpose of this legislation is to address Section 32(2) of the Constitution, which provides that any person has a right to gain access to any information held by a public or private body. If the record is requested from a private body the requester needs to prove that the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right.

One of the main requirements specified in the Act is the compilation of a manual by 28 February 2003 that provides information on both the types and categories of records held by the public or private body. In terms of the Act a private body includes any former or existing juristic person. Therefore Concargo (Pty) Ltd is regarded as a "private body" and both the manual and requirements regarding access must be in compliance with the provisions of the Act relevant to private bodies.

This document serves as the Concargo (Pty) Ltd (hereinafter referred to as 'Concargo') and its subsidiaries manual in terms of the Act to provide a reference as to the records held and the process that needs to be followed to request access to such records.

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Concargo is an independent logistics service provider to importers and exporters that offers comprehensive transport solutions by road, rail, sea and air. While we are not a clearing and forwarding agent, we do work with expert partners across the globe to deliver a fully-integrated service. As a 4th Party Logistics Service provider (4PL), we specialise in imported and exported cargo transportation throughout South Africa and Sub-Saharan Africa. From the collection of containers at the port to delivering cargo to your chosen destination – and all the logistics inbetween – we take care of your transport needs from start to finish.

SCOPE OF THE MANUAL

The scope of this manual will exclude Concargo operations outside the borders of the Republic of South Africa and will serve to provide a reference regarding the records held by the following South African operating divisions.

- Concargo Head Office, Cape Town and Johannesburg branch
- > National Domestic Road Haulage
- > Over Border Africa Road Haulage
- Air Freight
- Sea Freight
- > Abnormal Out-of-Gauge Project Cargo, Mobile Cranes & Access Equipment
- Warehousing & Distribution

ADMINISTRATION OF THE ACT

The Managing Director of Concargo will ensure that the requirements of the Act are administered in a fair, objective and unbiased manner.

GUIDE FOR REQUEST ON HOW TO USE THE ACT

ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE

The purpose of this Section 51(1)(e) of the Act is to provide requesters with sufficient guidelines and procedures to facilitate a request for access to a record held by Concargo.

It is important to note that an application for access to information can be refused in the event that the application does not comply with the procedural requirements of the Act. In addition, the successful completion and submission of a request from does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record.

Note:

If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to Concargo's records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal action may be instituted against such requester.

Completion of Access Request Form

In order for Concargo to respond to a request in a timely manner the Access Request Form should be completed, taking due cognizance of the following Instructions on Completion of Forms:

- 1. The Access Request Form must be completed in the English language.
- 2. Type or print in BLOCK LETTERS an answer to every question.
- 3. If a question does not apply, state "N/A" in response to that question.
- 4. If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question state "NIL" in response to that question.
- 5. If there is insufficient space on a printed form in which to answer a question additional information may be provided on an additional folio.
- 6. When the use of an additional folio is required, precede each answer thereon with the title applicable to that question.

Submission of Access Request Form

The completed Access Request Form must be submitted either via conventional mail, fax or email and must be addressed to the contact person indicated in this document for the particular areas of business.

An initial, non-refundable R57.00 request fee is payable on submission. This fee is not applicable to Personal Requesters, referring to any person seeking access to records that contain their personal information.

Payment of Fees

Payment details can be obtained from the contact person as indicated in this document and payment can be made by either direct deposit or by bank guarantee cheque (no credit card payments are accepted). Proof of payment must be supplied.

Note:

If the request for access is successful an access fee will be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s) and will be calculated based on the Prescribed Fees. The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record.

Notification

Requesters will be evaluated and the requester notified, within 30 days of receipt of the completed Access Request Form. Notification may include:

Notification of Extension Period (if required)

The requesters may be notified whether an extension period is required for the processing of their requests including:

- i. The required extension period, which will not exceed an additional 30 days;
- ii. Adequate reasons for the extension; and
- iii. Notice that the requester may lodge an application with a court against the payment of the deposit and the procedure including the period, for lodging the application.

Payment of Deposit (if applicable)

The requester may be notified whether a deposit is required. A deposit will be required depending on certain factors such as the volume and/or format of the information requested and the time required for search and preparation of the record(s).

The notice will state:

- i. The amount of the deposit payable (if applicable); and
- ii. That the requester may lodge an application with a court against the payment of the deposit and the procedures including the period, for lodging the application.

Please note:

In the event that access is refused to the requested record, the full deposit will be refunded to the requester.

Decision on Request

If no extension period or deposit is required the requesters will be notified within 30 days of the decision on their requests.

If the request for access to a record is successful the requester will be notified of the following:

- i. The amount of the access fee payable upon gaining access to the record (if any);
- ii. An indication of the form in which the access will be granted;
- iii. Notice that the requester may lodge an application with a court against the payment of the access fee and the procedure including the period for lodging the application.

If the request for access to a record in not successful the requester will be notified of the following:

- i. Adequate reasons for the refusal (refer to Third Party Information and Grounds for Refusal below); and
- ii. That the requester may lodge an application with a court against the refusal of the request and the procedure including the period, for lodging the application.

Third Party Information

If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, Concargo is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request. This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.

In the event of the third party furnishing reasons for the support or denial of access, our designated contact person will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted, or not.

Grounds for Refusal

Concargo may legitimately refuse to grant access to a requested record that falls within a certain category.

Grounds on which Concargo may refuse access include:

- i. Protecting personal information that Concargo hold about a third person (who is a natural person) including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
- ii. Protecting commercial information that the group holds about a third party or Concargo (for example trade secrets: financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the organization or the third party);
- iii. If disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- iv. If disclosure of the record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- v. If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the security of property or means of transport;
- vi. If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
- vii. If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
- viii. The record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived;
- ix. Disclosure of the record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of the Group;
- x. Disclosure of the record would put Concargo at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- xi. The record is a computer programme; and
- xii. The record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or the Group.

Records that cannot be found or do not exist

If Concargo has searched for a record and it is believed that the record does not exist or cannot be found, the requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken to try to locate the record.
